

Brian Hegi*Managing Partner*

Crossplane Capital

Brian is a co-founder and Managing Partner of Crossplane Capital, a Dallas-based private equity firm founded in 2018 investing control equity in niche manufacturing, industrial services, and value-added distribution businesses. Crossplane currently manages over $730 million across two funds and co-investment vehicles. He began his career as an operations improvement consultant with AlixPartners and AT Kearney and has been an industrial-focused private equity investor for the last 16 years. Brian is a proud Longhorn as a 2004 MBA graduate from the McCombs School of Business, and he is excited for UT to join the SEC alongside his undergraduate alma mater, Vanderbilt University.
